THE RUBBISHPILE GARDEN

Lesson for July 2, 1978

Background Scripture:
Acts 16:1-17;
1 Thessalonians 1 through 3.
Devotional Reading:
Matthew 13:18-23.

Rev. Althouse

One of the greatest promises found in the Bible is found in Phil. 4:19: "But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." What a marvelous promise! God supplies His children with everything they need. That means that if you are a child of God in Christ Jesus you can depend upon God to supply your every need. Consider for a moment that the supply is available even before the need arises. Even before you were born God knew that you would need a Savior in order to receive forgiveness. Thus, Jesus was in the mind of God from the very beginning. He is God's provision for your sins. Even before lungs existed God provided the air to breathe. Even before food was required by man for sustenance, God had marvelously provided fruits and vegetables. You cannot think of any need that God has not already made provison to meet. God takes care of his children. He always meets their numerous needs. You can depend upon Him in every case.

Let me say quickly that God will not supply your every wish and desire. It clearly states that He supplies your needs. You must willingly trust God to determine your needs. He knows what you want and knows your exact needs. He promises only to give you what you need. So if you have asked God for something, yet did not receive it; you can say with assurance that God in His manifold wisdom did what was in your best interest.

He supplies us in accorance with His Riches in glory. We stand in need and can expect the best that heaven can offer. How does He do this? The Scripture clearly states, "by Christ Jesus." Yes, Jesus Christ came in order that man's every need might be met. He can meet your need today. Trust Him!

Two years ago I visited an unusual spiritual community near Iverness, Scotland. It is called Findhorn and it started in a trailer park which was situated near a rubbishpile by the Firth of Moray, a large body of water leading into the North Sea. One of the reasons Findhorn has attracted great attention is because of the beautiful flower garden the rubbishpile has become, a miracle in the eyes of many, particularly in light of the austere, forbidding climate. According to the people of Findhorn, the secret of the rubbishpile's fruitfulness is to be found in spiritual principles.

Corinth The Evil

When the Apostle Paul went to the Greek city of Corinth there must have been many skeptics who were certain that nothing worthwhile could be done there. Corinth had the very worst of reputations. To "live like a Corinthian" meant to live a life of unrestrained appetites and passions. Commercial crossroads of the Aegean Sea, Corinth was a breeding ground for every kind of evil imaginable. It was the rubbishpile of Greece.

Several years ago when I visited the ruins of Pauline Corinth I remembered its evil reputations. Yet, as I looked over those lovely ruins my associations with Corinth were only good. The name "Corinthians" always evokes remembrance of Paul's beautiful "Hymn to Love," 1 Corinthians 13. I cannot help remembering that some of the finest passages in Paul's epistles come from the Corinthians letters.

I remember too that it was from Corinth that he wrote what is likely the earliest of all his published letters to churches, 1 Thessalonians. Then too I remember that some of Paul's finest work was done there, some of his most influential converts came from the Corinthian ministry. Although Corinth might have been the rubbishpile of Greece, God was able to make it bloom through Paul and his associates.

Unexpected Flowers

The name of Corinth ought to serve as a vital reminder to us; God is able to bring fruitfulness from any rubbishpile. Corinth would have been the last place that most people would have thought would attract Paul as a site for his missionary work. Paul chose Corinth, not because he closed his eyes to the evil, but because he could see beyond it and perceive the fruits that could be produced there by the power of God. Others looked and saw rubbish; Paul looked and saw flowers.

We need to remember this whenever we view the world about us. There is nothing or no one that cannot be made beautiful by the power of his touch. No place and no person are hopeless. Wherever we find an unpromising situation, let us remember the rubbishpile gardens that God can call forth by the power of his love.

Frazier's TV & Appliances
Has Moved To New Location

Frazier's TV and Appliances has moved to a new location on U. S. 460 West near Oxford Furnace Wayside.

The store, owned and operated by Bill and Minnie Frazier, their sons, Steve and Bo and their daughters-in-law, Vickie and Betty, is a neighborhood type store.

"We're a family store," said Mrs. Frazier and we strive to give the friendly, personal service that we feel you wouldn't find in a larger department store."

It was three and one-half years ago that the Fraziers opened their first store on US 460 in Concord. This, however was not their first encounter with this type business; Bill and Minnie have a combined total of more than 28 years experience in the appliance business.

With customers coming in from Charlotte County, Appomattox County, Bedford and Amherst Counties in addition to Campbell, the Fraziers are kept busy and that is the way they like it. Mrs. Frazier commented, "We have many repeat customers and this is a source of satisfaction."

Grand opening begins on Saturday, July 1 and continues through the month of July. The Fraziers invite you to come in, bring the family and browse or buy but most of all get to know the Frazier Family Business!

LITTERBUG

Today the day
That I must pay
For throwing trash
Along the highways.

So with my stick
within my hand
I pick up trash and old tin cans
And put them in the sack
That I must carry upon my back.

I'll walk along this littered road
Until I get a gread big load.
This thing has cost me many a buck.
So keep your trash within your truck.
Don't be a litterbug!

BETTY JUSTICE TAKES OFF POUNDS! The Conway Diet Institute has been in operation in Appomattox since January of 1977. Many local people are successfully taking weight off in the Monday night meetings, one of whom is Mrs. Betty Justice of Appomattox, shown above, who recently received her 20-pound achievement pin.

"The 20-pound mark is the first major goal we try to reach at the Conway Diet Institute," says Betty Tinsley, lecturer for the Appomattox Club. "After reaching a 20-pound loss the dieter feels a new self assurance and more positive self-image. This enables him to be more confident and successfully reach his total goal. Mrs. Justice is doing a beautiful job of taking off her excess pounds and I feel that she will emerge as a real winner in our weight reduction program," says Mrs. Tinsley.

Area meetings are held on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. in the Fidelity American Bank, Hillcrest Branch on Moses Street. Anyone interested may contact Betty Tinsley at 248-6771 for more information.
